COURSE/INSTRUCTOR: 009:111/LEAL SESSION: SPRING 2011
STUDENT WRITTEN COMMENTS:

A. If a friend of yours were considering taking this class, what would you tell her/him about this course and about this instructor?

B. What things were most/least helpful to you this semester?

A. Wide range of texts in regards to style, origin; knowledgeable instructor that enriches discussion and relevant lecture material

B. Most helpful- proofread rough drafts of papers; least helpful-

A. The course made me much more confident in my speaking, which had a lot to do with Rebecca.

B. The readings & discussions were very helpful, maybe not the poems

A. Definitely take this course. I was nervous at first but am now interested in becoming a French major.

B. Reading a novel helped me to learn the most- I enjoyed La goutte d'or and reading each night greatly helped me to improve.

A. The course is quite a bit of work but the instructor is wonderful and makes it much more enjoyable/bearable as opposed to if it were another instructor. She is a wonderful teacher.

B. The instructor was the most helpful person and helped me understand the material so much better.

A. The progression of the types of assignments from simple summaries to the final dissertation involving detailed analysis & the incorporation of external sources helped me to gradually improve the writing & the way I approached the texts over the course of the semester.

B. Feedback on drafts was useful and helped me to get a better sense of how to write correctly in French

A. I would definitely recommend Rebecca Léal as instructor, in fact I already have. I would tell friends that the course is manageable, but requires lots of reading—every night. Overall, I would recommend it.

B. writing big papers: most helpful; getting personal feedback from the instructor on every assignment: most helpful

A. This course requires a lot of work, mostly outside of class. But you learn a lot and your writing in French will definitely improve. Rebecca Leal is also really involved & gives a lot of feedback.

B. Most helpful were the writing assignment rough drafts & how they were corrected, they were very helpful. Maybe the tight scheduling would be the only hindrance.

A. Very-time consuming. The instructor is very helpful and conscientious.

B. The professor was very helpful during office hours.

A. I would tell them to avoid procrastinating with the texts.

B. How to analyze a text/structure a paper

- A. I would say definitely take this class. It helps with reading and speaking, and I might even go as far to say that it helps more with speaking than Oral Expressions classes. I would also highly recommend the instructor.
 - B. Writing so many papers was tedious, but helpful. I think discussion in class, versus lecture, was most helpful. I think the discussion board on ICON was useful also and might have been a good tool when we did short stories as well.
- A. I would say the course is hard if you struggle analyzing text, but it is beneficial overall to learning. The instructor is affective and is very friendly. She grades sort of hard though.
 - B. The most helpful was getting feedback from other students on my writing to help make it better for the final draft.
- A. I would tell him/her that Rebecca is an excellent instructor- I've taken 2 classes taught by her & I have learned a lot.
 - B. Writing the papers were helpful.
- A. The course is very organized and informative. The variety of texts ensures that you're always intrigued by new themes and authors. Prof. Leal is extremely approachable, and her interest in the material and in the students really helps you engage with the course.
 - B. Most: feedback on papers, lecture notes, in-class discussions. Least: Discussions for Le Roi se meurt
- A. I would tell them that Rebecca was a wonderful teacher; she really enjoys teaching & talking about course materials. She makes sure that she can help you outside of class & she has wonderful insight.
 - B. The course pack was a wonderful tool all semester; the guidelines for each paper were so helpful. I thought that the poetry section dragged out; I didn't have any interest in it, but I understand its importance to the course.
- A. She is very kind and helpful but also expects a lot (in a good way)
 - B. La Goutte d'or was very difficult to me but probably improved my reading/French skills overall greatly.
- A. The class is rigorous but very helpful in developing French, and Rebecca was awesome!
 - B. Discussion in class/ICON were very helpful.
- A. For a literature class you do a lot more speaking than you'd expect and it's not so much learning about French literature as it is reading and writing in French.
 - B. Most- summarize things we read in class, discussions, starting with explications de texte, making outlines!
