

HISTORICAL COLLECTIONS IN THE IOWA CITY AREA

University Libraries

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 2:30-4:30 p.m.
Library Conference Room (Main Library, 2nd floor, southeast)

A research seminar presented by the UI Libraries in cooperation with the UI's Graduate History Society and the UI's Department of History. Researchers in all fields are welcome.

- Representatives of the State Historical Society of Iowa and the Herbert Hoover Presidential Library will join archivists from the UI Libraries.
- The emphasis will be on informing researchers and prospective researchers of collections of primary source materials available in the Iowa City area.
- Instruction will rely heavily upon lecture and demonstration. Presenters will be available after the session to answer questions.

Reservations are necessary. Seating is limited. Mail your reservation form to Marsha Forys, Instructional Services Department, LIB. [If the form is unavailable, contact her at 335-5301 or marsha-forys@uiowa.edu, or see the online form: <http://myweb.uiowa.edu/sostrem/history/seminars/2004/local04.pdf>]

– Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires an accommodation in order to participate in this seminar, please contact Marsha Forys, 335-5301 or marsha-forys@uiowa.edu.

– The University of Iowa prohibits discrimination in employment or in its educational programs and activities on the basis of race, national origin, color, creed, religion, sex, age, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or associational preference. The University also affirms its commitment to providing equal opportunities and equal access to University facilities. For additional information on nondiscrimination policies, contact the Coordinator of Title IX, Section 504, and the ADA in the Office of Affirmative Action, (319) 335-0705 (voice) or (319) 335-0697 (text), 202 Jessup Hall, The University of Iowa, Iowa City, Iowa, 52242-1316.
